

Irini's Politou Curriculum Vitae

Eirini Politou has been started her work experience since 1998 in the sales department of a commercial company and then became responsible for the shipment of goods (internal - external).

In the education and development of personnel area has been started since 2003.

In the beginning she was occupied with the secretariat support of seminars and over time, she was started with the organization of open seminars and in-house training.

As a result, she was assumed managerial responsibilities, taking duties for completing training programs and conferences-events. Furthermore, she was responsible for the management, administration and the effective operation of the company.

So far in her career, she has been in contact with a large number of companies & executives staff from a variety of sectors, with the aim to training and development the personnel and the executives of all the levels.

She has also been involved in European projects regarding volunteerism and ESPA programs relating to training and reintegration of unemployed as well.

She is a graduate of public college in management & secretarial services and she has frequently attended many educational seminars and personal development seminars.

She is like to communicate with people and she is love offering her services in order to give support to anyone people they need for personal development concerning all aspects of their lives.